

The Baloch Studies in the Arab world

Prof. Dr. Saad Abudayeh

Abstract:

The Studies in the Arab world about Baloch race or Balochistan is very scarce .In the Jordanian University library which is the best in Jordan there are five books only. By far, the periodicals do not talk about the Baloch in the Arab World .This subject isn't an issue in the Arab press or publications.In these books which I found in the Library you may find something about Balochistan and Baloch .It talks about history of immigrations to the Middle of Asia not the reverse.

Teacher professionalism: Benchmark and Challenges in the University of Balochistan

Muhammad Hayat

Abstract:

University of Balochistan was instituted in the early years of 1970s with the total cost of five and half lac rupees. A finite faculty was appointed to exert cognitive services to usher the gift of higher education to the people of newly fashioned province. Right after commencement, it had only five departments in all. But within a short span of time, the University emerged as the principle source for the production of trained brains for the development of the country in general, and for Balochistan in particular. Similarly, it produced behemoth chunk of professional teachers who have been serving the varsity since then. However, the edifice of professionalism of an individual erects upon the academic background, areas of experiences, training, exposure, and personal toil. A teacher conversant with necessary methods of imparting education and integrated with the cause of learning can be regarded as professional. The paper aims to measure the teacher professionalism, pin point the barricades confronted to it in
