Field of Archaeology in Balochistan and its Importance on the Baloch History

Jamil Baloch

Abstract:

The land of Balochistan has been a frame of civilizations throughout the history. In the ancient times, the invading nations used this area as a passage through India and other parts of east and west. Balochistan has the oldest civilization like Mehrgarh, which is called to be the mother of civilizations of the Indo-Pak and the Iranian region. It is said, that the civilization of Mehrgarh gave birth the first human civilization throughout the world. Balochistan has more than 350 archaeological sites, a few has been discovered and the remaining sites are still awaiting. This paper illustrates the different archaeological sites of Balochistan and their prehistoric records.

Hitherto Unsolved Problems Relating to the Balochi Language

Naeem Dilpul

The Balochi language is considered to be one of the ancient languages of the world, and it is also believed to be one of the primitive Iranian languages. The Balochi language has not been a written language throughout the history and still awaiting for a standardized orthographic system. Efforts have been formulated by a small number of linguists to practice a satisfactory and standardized orthographic system but this dream is still awaiting to be accomplished.

This paper illustrates all aspects of hitherto un-solved problems of the Balochi language and its orthographic system in detail.

Abstract:

A thorough study of the Baloch race written history informs us that what has been written in the past, are imperceptible and vague. From the beginning till now no historian has been successful to throw a clear light over the Baloch race, its origin, growth as a nation and exodus. Some historians have labeled the Baloch race as a descent of Semite origin and the others have tagged it as the remnants of Kaldian race. Some historians opine that the Baloch are from the inhabitants of Caspian Sea (Bahr -e- Khizr), some say that Baloch are the remnants of Median, Sumerian and Elamites.
